

RE Public Consultation Clare River System.... 1st August 2016

Inland Fisheries Ireland

11 AUG 2016

Galway
Received

We the fishery owners and landowners with lands adjoining the Clare river agree to revoke bye law 841 of 2008. This will permit all legal angling methods on the Clare River from Daly's Bridge in the town land of Corundum, to a point 300 meters upstream Of the footbridge at Anbally in the town land of Anbally and Turloughmartin County Galway.

The removal of the fly only rule shall bring it into line with the rest of the Clare River.

We nominate; Tommy Casserly, submission on our behalf.
